

IKM Gabi Noah International Krav Maga

Combat Training Division

Law Enforcement Krav Maga Instructors Course

The IKM Combat Training Division offers a training course that was designed specifically to answer the needs of Police and Law-Enforcement officers and all others who wish to gain skills in this field of activity in order to provide them the tools to operate in the challenging reality of their line of duty. The course deals not only with the combat skills, but also provides critical knowledge regarding the threats facing us today and the methods being used in order to prevent such threats.

During the past years the IKM Combat Training Division trained a significant number of Police and Law Enforcement units around the world. During training IKM provided effective Solutions to various situations according to the specific reality and needs of each unit.

The IKM Combat Training Division Director, Shahar (Sean) Or, is an Expert 2 level Krav Maga Instructor with vast experience in the fields of Law Enforcement, Military, Police, VIP Protection and Security. During the past years shahar have trained a large number of security services such as the Panamanian presidential secret service, the Italian police combat instructors, Law Enforcement Instructors from New York State, SWAT and many others serving in the Israeli security services.

The IKM Law Enforcement and Police course includes the following topics:

Threat Identification and alertness

IKM believes that in order to fight criminal and terror activity effectively, high level combat skills have to go side by side with the critical knowledge of identifying threats and alertness that in many incidents may prevent a hostile activity in its initial stages. During the seminar, we will share suspect identification techniques, suspicious signs, questioning methods, preventive behaviour and more.

Krav Maga

During the seminar we will cover a large number of Krav Maga techniques while focusing on the way they are being use in Police work. We will also practice Realistic scenarios, under stress drills, moving from Krav Maga techniques to weapon response, and more.

IKM Gabi Noah International Krav Maga

Combat Training Division

Weapons Training

Starting with the basics, IKM firearms training includes the tactical use of pistols, sub-machine guns and rifles in different types of scenarios and environments. IKM instructors will provide a wide range of armed combat techniques while using realistic scenarios and extensive training methods.

Police Tactics

The police tactics training program includes a number of subjects all related to the actual police work of Patrol Officers, Detectives, Special Response Teams and more. During training we will provide tactical solutions to a variety of operational situations such as: Conducting Police search on suspects, vehicles and homes, Arrests methods, Riot control tactics, Hand cuffing and more.

Tactical Drills

Reality based tactical drills which include a large number of scenarios that will test the knowledge earned during training while combining all combat components such as: Police Tactics, Krav Maga, tactical movements and more, all In order to simulate reality at the max.

The course will consist of 10 days of training. At the end of the course a diploma of a Krav Maga Law Enforcement Instructor will be given to students which successfully pass a final exam and are CIC certified. A yearly renewal of the diploma will be granted after completing an instructors training seminar in order to maintain a high level of professionalism, tactical and technical updates and more.

Cost

1 part of 10 day course – 1000 Euro per student

2 part of 5 days each – 600 Euro per each student per each part.

 All courses and seminars may include topics from all training programs according to the specific needs of the client.